
A common level is re-fitted within each period; historical M2 nuisance is fixed.
Periods overlap. Ratios concern the untruncated working clock, not observed mean waits.